Host Company

This innovative host company was established in 2009 by the CEO, then in full time study, who had issues moving personal belongings between home and university. He has since grown this concept to offer a full door to door delivery solution to anyone who needs to send their bags and boxes around the world. Competitively priced, the service is used by students, expats, holidaymakers, people moving abroad and business people who wish to travel light and avoid excess baggage charges. Expanding rapidly, they have gone from just 3 UK routes to over 40 000 international routes taking in 200+ countries and are opening offices throughout Australia and the US.
